Nº	Nombre	Salto	Descripción
1	Lima 2019		The Lima 2019 Pan American Games, officially the XVIII Pan American Games and commonly known as Lima 2019, took place between July 26 and August 11, 2019, in Lima. 6,680 athletes from 41 countries in the Americas participated in 419 events across 38 sports.
2	San Pedro de Atacama		San Pedro de Atacama is located in northern Chile, 1,700 km from Santiago. It serves as the center of Atacama culture and provides access to the most stunning landscapes of the planet's most arid desert.
3	La portada de Antofagasta		La Portada de Antofagasta Natural Monument is situated amidst the sea, becoming one of the preferred attractions for tourists. It is characterized by the presence of a cliff and a natural arch bearing the same name.
4	Valle de la Luna		The Valley of the Moon is a nature sanctuary located 13 km from San Pedro de Atacama. It is a unique place known for its abrupt scenic beauty, earthy colors, absolute silence, and the scarcity of humidity, flora, and fauna.

5 a/b	Música Andina		The musical traditions of the Atacameño and Aymara peoples, before the arrival of the Spanish in Chilean territory, form the basis of Andean music. Its main rhythms include huayno, cacharpaya, and trote. The musical instruments encompass a wide group of aerophones, led by the quena, zampoña, and tarka.
6	Minería de Chile		Behind Chile's significant history, mining stands as the country's primary economic activity, known for its export of copper, lithium, iodine, and other important minerals.
7	Gigante de Atacama		It is the largest anthropomorphic geoglyph in the world. Located 15 km from the town of Huara, it is believed to have been drawn by tribes in the area between 900 to 1450 AD, although there is still no certainty about its origin or the culture that brought it to life..
8	Moneda de Cobre		The national currency, the Chilean peso. Particularly the old 100-peso coin is made primarily of copper; a mineral extracted in large quantities in northern Chile.

9 a/b	Flamenco Chileno		In the vastness of the arid Atacama Salt Flat, the beautiful Chilean flamingos appear, bringing color to the arid north of the country with their long legs, curved beaks, and magnificent pink color.
10	Gabriela Mistral		Gabriela Mistral, a renowned Chilean poet, educator, and diplomat, is part of Chilean history due to her poems, dedication to education, and for becoming the first Ibero-American woman to receive the Nobel Prize in Literature and the second Latin American person to receive this prestigious award.
11	Desierto Florido de Atacama		The flowering desert of Atacama, despite being known as the world's most arid desert, showcases a diversity of colors in its flowers, captivating the eyes of visitors.
12 a/b	Fiesta de la Tirana		The Tirana celebration is an Andean festivity related to Pachamama, linked to the Virgin of Copacabana. Celebrated by workers and peasants, the festivity is the largest religious festival in Northern Chile and the most popular in the country. Between 250,000 and 300,000 visitors gather in this town of around 800 inhabitants during the week of celebrations.

13	La Mano del desierto		It is impressive to see this work in the middle of the world's most arid desert, the Atacama, on the side of the road that crosses northern Chile (Route 5 Pan-American). This nearly 7-meter-high concrete hand, 'The Hand of the Desert,' created by the Chilean artist Mario Irarrázabal has been there since 1992. This beautiful work has become an icon of the region."

1	Santiago 2023		The Pan American Games Santiago 2023 mark the first time in history that this type of sporting event has been held in Chile, characterized by their mascot "Fiu", the seven-colored bird present in the wetlands of Chile.
2	Pueblo Mapuche		The Mapuche people are one of the most notable indigenous peoples in the country, both for their social and demographic weight and for their strong sense of cultural identity. Evidence of this essence can be seen in their jewelry, which are an important part of women's clothing and constitute one of the most representative and enduring aspects of the tangible cultural heritage of the Mapuche people.
3	Iglesia Chilote		The churches of Chiloé constitute a unique example of religious architecture in Latin America. Built entirely of wood, they represent an architectural tradition initiated by itinerant Jesuit preachers in the 17th and 18th centuries. Currently, a set of sixteen of them are considered "National Historical Monument of Chile" as well as, "World Heritage by Unesco" since 2000
4	Patagonia Wall		The Chilean Patagonia, characterized by its cinematic landscapes, its livestock history, its "gaucho" style and for being an immense bioregion that presents a very varied geography which results in a great diversity of landscapes, climates, culture and ecosystems: mountains, fjords, channels and islands, due to the sinking of the Andes mountain range.

5	Torres del Paine		Torres del Paine National Park is one of the most important natural areas in Chile, known internationally for the scenic beauty of its surroundings. It was also designated the eighth wonder of the world in 2013. It is located in the most southern region of the country, and allows to preserve
6	Volcanes + Iglesia Puerto Varas		Chile is a land of volcanoes, where its borders are within the so-called "Pacific Ring of Fire", which is one of the most dynamically unstable and active regions on Earth. The presence of volcanoes throughout Chile has a dual dimension; on the one hand it beautifies the landscape and generates various tourist activities, but on the other, they are a constant and unpredictable danger for the communities that live near them. Puerto Varas church is a national monument that forms the postcard of the city of Puerto Varas, stands out for its Neo-Romanesque style, thus becoming a symbol of German colonization in southern Chile.
7	Viaducto Malleco		The Malleco Viaduct is a Chilean railway bridge located over the Malleco River, from which it takes its name, and which was considered, in its time, the highest railway bridge in the world. It has a length of 347.5 meters, divided into five equal spans and is 102 meters high. Currently, it is considered a National Monument, a historical milestone of Civil Engineering and is part of the tentative list of World Heritage of Unesco.
8	Artesanía		Part of the tradition of the indigenous peoples, handicrafts are one of the most important examples that remain of the ancestors, showing their beauty through the different artisanal skills with some of the most common practices being pottery or ceramics. Ancestral techniques have been preserved, so that today many ceramic pieces show treasured indigenous features, such as for example from Diaguita and Mapuche pottery.

9 a/b	Palafitos de Chiloé		Land of myths, legends, traditions and incomparable gastronomy, the large island of Chiloé is part of the obligatory stop for visitors, where its pastoral landscapes, its iconic wooden churches and its colorful houses on stilts create a unique landscape. Their stilts are made of luma wood and their walls are brightly colored.
10	Catedrales de Mármol		The Marble Chapels, also known as the Marble Cathedrals, are one of the most important tourist attractions in Patagonia, which are composed of three limestone formations that stand out for the beauty of their columns and the intense blue of the waters that protect them. They are located on the shores of the General Carrera Lake in the Aysén region and form one of the most beautiful landscapes in southern Chile, being protected by law since 1994 when they were named a Nature Sanctuary.
11	Copihue		The national flower of Chile, the copihue, is the symbol of happiness, virtue, joy, friendship and gratitude. With a trumpet shape and colors that vary between red and white, the copihue is an endemic flower of Chile, which has an important cultural significance, as it was used by local indigenous cultures, such as the Mapuches, in their rituals and decorations, which gave it a special value within their identity.

12 a/b/c	Pingüinos Emperador		The largest of the 17 existing penguin species and the deepest diving bird, the emperor penguin is the only one that inhabits the Antarctic Continent, although they are found throughout the Antarctic Circle. Known for its blackish gray plumage on its dorsal area and yellowish underneath; blue-gray neck and orange patches on the ears, they can be over 4 feet tall.
13	Fauna Chilena		Due to its peculiar geographic location, Chile has a great diversity and endemism of flora and fauna. The most representative are the condor, one of the largest flying birds in the world; the huemul, an endemic deer and very difficult to spot because it is an endangered species and the puma, the fourth largest feline in the world, present throughout Chile thanks to its great ability to adapt to extreme conditions.
island 1	Pueblo Mapuche		The "ruka", traditional Mapuche dwelling, of conical shape and circular base, was built with materials of vegetable origin, with the exception of the floor which was made of earth. The internal structure was built with logs, while for the external cladding, straw, reed fibers, coirón or totora were used, which served as thermal insulation and protection against rain.
island 2	Winery		Chile stands out for the great quality of its vineyards, most of which are located in the Maule region, from which the so-called "best Cabernet" is exported. Chilean wine is characterized by its excellent and consistent quality, which has positioned it as one of the leading wine-producing countries in the New World.

Nº	Nombre	Salto	Descripción
1	La Corbeta Esmeralda		The Esmeralda Corvette was the protagonist of several events in Chilean history; however, its most renown is based on the events that occurred on May 21, 1879 during the naval battle of Iquique, when under the command of Arturo Prat Chacón it sank with the flag flying after a long, unequal and unyielding fight against the Huáscar monitor.
2	Artesanía en Crin de Rari		The Rari horsehair craft is a traditional weaving technique that uses horsehair, and has developed in the Chilean town of Rari, in the Maule region. In 2010, the Rari horsehair weavers group was declared a Living Human Treasure by the National Council of Culture and the Arts and UNESCO. Subsequently, in 2015, the town of Rari was declared "World Craft City" by World Crafts Council.
3	Casa de Moneda Wall		The well-known "Palacio de La Moneda", commonly known as "La Moneda", is the seat of the President of the Republic of Chile. In a pure neoclassical style with influences from Roman Doric, the building is a horizontal volume that, by virtue of its rectilinear composition, transmits strength and stability, which to this day retains the style, strength and harmony that its maker gave it.
4	Parque Eólico		Due to its extensive coastline exposed to constant winds from the South Pacific sector, Chile has decided to bet on wind energy. It is one of the three renewable energies that are most generated in the country. Currently, there are about 44 operational wind farms that work to provide the country with energy.
